A Note from the Principal

"Living for the glory of God and the good of others."

WHAT DOES RESPECT LOOK LIKE? Your child's daily dealings with adults and kids alike will be more pleasant if he speaks and acts respectfully. As we (parents and teachers) interact with our children, it is important to model respect. Have respectful discussions even if you disagree on something. Help them think of other instances where people might disagree but still be able to have a productive, respectful conversation.

Respect for neighbors and property is also important. When you mow your lawn this spring, talk about how keeping your yard tidy is a way of showing respect to your neighbors. Taking care of school property such as text books is showing respect to fellow students and teachers. Your child will be much happier in their daily interactions if they are taught how to show respect.

TEACHER FEATURE! This week's teacher is Mr. Stroud. Mr. Stroud has been teaching at Peace since 2012. He has been teaching 4th grade since 2013. Mr. Stroud has high expectations of all of his students and challenges them to always do their best. His students know that he truly cares about each and every one of them. He was recently married and now has the blessing of three children! Mr. Stroud is truly a blessing to our Peace family.

Blessings on your week,

Sheri Jusozak

LEST!!

On Wednesday our 5th-8th graders will be heading to Concordia University for LEST. For those of you who are new to Peace, LEST stands for Lutheran Elementary Schools Tournament. It is an exciting event that involves students from about twenty Lutheran schools from around the Northwest (Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana) as well as schools from California and even British Columbia. Students have opportunities to share their God-given talents in athletic, academic, and artistic events. We compete in basketball, spelling, math, chess, science, Lego robotics, writing, choir, bells, band, drama, dance, instrumental music, swimming, knowledge bowl, and writing. There is definitely something for everyone. It is a wonderful weekend where many memories are made!

FOOD DRIVE UPDATE!

Wednesday marks the end of our food drive. We exceeded our goal of raising OVER 1000 lbs. THANK YOU for sharing your blessings with those in need.

STUDENT COUNCIL is now selling Valentine candy-grams for 50 cents. Students may purchase them at lunch through Feb. 13.

YEARBOOK CONTEST ALMOST OVER!

Our yearbook cover needs a design! We are looking for artwork that shows a bobcat, a cross, or a combination of those two things. Submit a drawing to the yearbook committee no later than February 23. The contest is open to all students in all grades. (Drawings may be given to Mrs. Juszczak or Mrs. Love, and they will then see that the committee gets them.)

It's not too late to purchase a yearbook. Go to www.TreeRing.com/validate. Put in our school's code: 101317743353454

GOOD LUCK TO ALL OF YOU!

PEACE GARDEN UPDATE

The ground is very wet! However, if you look closely, you can see our celery poking through! Once things dry up a bit, the kids will be back out there in the garden!
